

Year 10 REVISION CHECKLIST: English Winter Exam

As you begin your revision, complete this honestly to help you see where your priorities should lie for your revision. The target is eventually to get all your ticks in the left hand column.

I CAN:
SECTION A: Analysing Fiction Prose
1. Independently read and understand a Fiction passage
2. Demonstrate understanding of what I have read
3. Use relevant quotations from the passage to support my own points.
4. Use a Point; Evidence; Explanation structure in extended answers.
5. Understand and write about how characterisation can make the passage engaging and entertaining.
6. Understand and write about the plot of the passage and how it engages the reader.
7. Identify, analyse and evaluate the writer's use of language features (similes, metaphors, alliteration etc)
8. Understand and write about the author's use of structural features.
SECTION B: Analysing Media Texts
9. Explain how audiences can be categorised

10. Identify and explain a possible target audience for a given media text
11. Explain the Uses and Gratifications Theory
12. Apply the Uses and Gratifications Theory to a media text of your choice
13. Understand why audiences are important to the media industry
14. Annotate a media text to show how it appeals to its audience
15. Know the names of parts of a magazine cover
16. Use media terminology fluently and convincingly in my writing		